The Heartsong of Wonder Quinn

Kate Gordon

The Heartsong of Wonder Quinn* is an enchanting fairytale celebrating friendship, bravery and the importance of staying true to yourself.

Wonder Quinn is a lonely orphan who lives in the attic of Direleafe Hall with only a gloomy crow for company. Every year she watches the other girls return to school, hoping to find a friend among them. And every year her heart breaks when she doesn’t.

So when a fiery new girl befriends her in class, Wonder’s dreams seem to be coming true. But as the girls grow closer, Wonder discovers her friend has a list of strange wishes: Throw a pie, leap into the sky, break someone’s heart...

What is Mabel’s big secret? And why is she in such a hurry to finish her list?

Kate Gordon Kate Gordon grew up in a very booky house, with two librarian parents, in a small town by the sea in Tasmania. After studying performing arts and realising she was a terrible actor, Kate decided to give in to genetics and study to be a librarian herself. She never stopped writing. Her most recent publications are the young adult novel Girl Running, Boy Falling (A&U) and the younger reader series Juno Jones: Word Ninja (Yellow Brick Books).

Footprints on the Moon

Lorraine Marwood

Lorraine's previous book Leave Taking was the joint winner of the 2019 NSW Premier's Literary Awards, Patricia Wrightson Prize for Children's Literature and was shortlisted for the 2019 CBCA Book of the Year, Younger Readers.

A verse novel set against the backdrop of 1969, when humans first landed on the moon and the Vietnam War was raging.

Sharnie is trying to make sense of the confusing and changing times while also starting at a new school, dealing with her grandmother having health issues and coping with her wayward sister, Cas.

Footprints on the Moon dextrously raises important and timely themes for its intended audience: friendship, family, death, grief, support, war, protesting, and conscription.

Lorraine Marwood was born and raised in rural Victoria and lives with her husband on a dairy farm. She has six children and twelve grandchildren, and she loves to craft, sew, garden, walk her dog Monti and bake for family gatherings. She has been a headmistress of a rural school and has studied literacy.

Zoe, Max and the Bicycle Bus

Steven Herrick

From the master of free verse Steven Herrick comes this funny and uplifting middle-grade verse novel about a classroom of kids who get on their bikes to ride for change.

With their new teacher's help, the kids in Class 5D ride to school together in a bicycle bus. Olivia can fix a puncture in two minutes and Max can ride on one wheel.

Lily wishes she wasn't quite so wobbly and Dylan has a speedy getaway from alley cats, Dabir's glad to be part of a group and Zoe's bike even has a name (Esmeralda). Everyone loves their new way of getting to school.

But there's a narrow stretch with no white line to separate the cyclists from the local traffic, so Zoe and Max decide they need to make it right (even if that means breaking a few rules).

‘Herrick homes in on the emotion of the moment and traps it like a bug in a jar.’

Sunday Age

Steven Herrick is the author of twenty-five books for children and young adults. His books have twice won the New South Wales Premier's Literary Awards and have been shortlisted for the Children's Book Council of Australia Book of the Year Awards on nine occasions. He is the winner of a prestigious Deutsche Jugendliteraturpreis.

My Dog is a Winner

Elizabeth Fensham

The third book in the ‘My Dog’ series. My Dog is a Winner is a paw-some tale of friendship, compassion and finding happiness.

Eric Bright and his doggy best mate, Ugly, are back. They’re up against their biggest challenge yet: solving the serious problem looming over Eric’s mean and miserable big sister, Gretchen.

It’s lucky Ugly is the friendliest dog ever. He’s a star companion pooch, working with kids at school. He’s surely going to rescue Eric’s sister – and, on top of that, win almost every category at the upcoming school pet show. Surely.

But when Ugly goes off his food and refuses to play, Eric must figure out what’s hounding him.

Can he fix Ugly and Gretchen on his own?

Elizabeth Fensham’s first novel, Helicopter Man, won the 2006 CBCA Book of the Year for Younger Readers. It has been followed by numerous award-winning titles. The first of the My Dog series, My Dog Doesn’t Like Me, was published in 2014 followed by the second, My Dog Gets a Job, in 2017. Elizabeth lives in Victoria’s Dandenong Ranges.

As Fast As I Can

Penny Tangey

From CBCA-shortlisted author Penny Tangey comes this funny, heartfelt novel about ten-year-old Vivian and her quest to one day become an Olympic middle-distance runner.

Ten-year-old Vivian is determined to compete at the Olympic Games one day. Problem is, she hasn’t found a sport she’s any good at yet. But everyone says if you work hard enough you can achieve anything, right? So when Vivian discovers she has a talent for cross country running, finally, her Olympic dream might actually come true.

But then a family illness is uncovered and all of Vivian’s plans begin to unravel. Can she keep her dream alive? Or will she be stopped in her tracks?

A funny, heartfelt novel about resilience, acceptance and dreaming big.

Penny Tangey largely writes humorous books for young people. While at university Penny performed stand-up comedy, including in the Melbourne International Comedy Festival. Penny now works as a researcher for television quiz shows Hard Quiz and The Chase, but is still terrible at trivia.

The Elephant

Peter Carnavas

An exquisite first novel from acclaimed picture book author and illustrator Peter Carnavas about Olive, Dad and his elephant.

'Your dad won't fix your bike – until you fix your dad.'

Olive's father has a sadness so big that she imagines it as an enormous elephant following him around. Every day Olive sees the elephant, and every day she wishes it would go.

With the help of Grandad and her best friend, Arthur, Olive sets out to chase the elephant away.

But how can Olive move something so big?

Peter Carnavas writes and illustrates award-winning books for children and the grown-ups in their lives. He is a popular presenter in schools. Peter lives on the Sunshine Coast with his wife, two daughters and a small, charming dog called Florence.

Untitled

Nova Weetman

The not-to-be-missed third and final book in the award-winning 'Secrets' series.

Clem Timmins survived the first year of high school and is back for round two. Everything's changing. Her best friend has turned boy-crazy over the Summer and Clem's mum has taken a job working at the school canteen.

How is she going to survive Year Eight without dying of embarrassment? Unlike everyone else, she doesn't want a boyfriend. She doesn't want to wear makeup. She just wants to be herself. But sometimes that's easier said than done.

Can Clem find the strength to be at peace with herself and speak up?

'A perfect story about being in-between. Moving and utterly absorbing. I could go on reading about Clem forever.'

Emily Gale

Nova Weetman lives in Melbourne with her partner and two children. She has written for film and TV as well as award-winning YA and middle-grade novels. The Secrets We Keep and The Secrets We Share are both CBCA Notable books.

Carnavas takes the tough topic of caregiver depression and gives it a delicate, graceful touch. His plot weaves tightly together, and the ending twist is a lovely completion. Black-and-white spot illustrations throughout give a visually accessible feel, as do the short chapters... A delicate, lovely story about caregiver depression that will validate and empower readers.'

Fozia and the Quest of Prince Zal

Rosanne Hawke

Set following the aftermath of the 2010 floods in Pakistan, this is a sensitive tale of community spirit, human kindness and the magic of family.

Twelve-year-old Fozia has survived the worst flood in Pakistan's history. But her life will never be the same. With her little sister gone and her parents missing, Fozia now lives with Jehan's family in a new village, hoping that one day she will see her family again. But after returning to her old home and coming face to face with the brick-kiln owner, Fozia realises there is much more at stake if she's made to pay back her family's debt to the owner.

To escape her new reality, Fozia tells her friends a fairytale about Prince Zal. He rides a magic carpet on a quest to find his little sister, battling leopards and hidden serpents along the way. But can Prince Zal succeed in his quest if the truth behind Fozia's story is revealed?

Rosanne Hawke is an award-winning South Australian author of over twenty-five books. She lived in Pakistan and the United Arab Emirates as an aid worker for ten years. She teaches creative writing at Tabor Adelaide and writes in an old Cornish farmhouse with underground rooms near Kapunda. www.rosannehawke.com

Henry Hamlet’s Heart Rhiannon Wilde

A romantic teen comedy-drama in the vein of the smash-hit Love, Simon. Winner of the 2019 Glendower Award.

Henry is neurotic and insecure: academically gifted, but directionless. School captain, but largely unpopular, he navigates the social mires of the private school scene with difficulty and hilarity by hiding behind his enigmatic best friend, Lennon Cane.

A photographer and football star, Lennon lives with his father. He is brilliant at most things, but highly emotionally guarded.

After it becomes apparent that Len has always had feelings for Henry, the two fall in love, with both beautiful and disastrous consequences. Dealing with key themes of friendship, LGBTQI+ rights, first love, and belonging, this is a coming-of-age, coming out story with a twist.

Rhiannon Wilde is a high school teacher who loves words, books, and coffee. Her short story inspired by urban Brisbane, You Deserve Nothing, was longlisted for the Queensland Young Writer’s Award in 2014. Stylistically she has always been influenced by poetry, and the works of people like Sylvia Plath and WB Yeats.

This One is Ours

Kate O'Donnell

Sofie is a dreamy young artist with her head in the clouds, but when she travels to Paris on exchange, she's awakened to the power of art in inspiring change in the world. Can she reconcile what art means for her?

When she goes on exchange, she is expecting magnificent adventures of the heart and mind. Yet France isn't what she imagined. Sofie's more homesick than lovesick.

But then her host sister, Delphine, and fellow artist Olivier show her a different side of Paris, and Sofie starts to question her ideas of art, beauty and meaning. Of everything. There's truth in what her best friend, Crow, has been saying all along: the world is in crisis and people need to take notice. And when a catastrophe strikes close to home, Sofie realises she needs to act.

Kate O'Donnell is a writer, editor and bookseller specialising in children's and young adult literature. She has a BA in History and French from the University of Melbourne and studied Professional Writing and Editing at RMIT. Her first YA Novel, Untidy Towns, sold to great acclaim.

When We Are Invisible

Claire Zorn

The haunting, timely and highly-anticipated sequel to the award-winning dystopian novel The Sky So Heavy.

'Instinct has kept us alive so far. It's like a compass in my gut and I tune into the needle often: trust/don't trust, run/stay. The winter has brought out the animal within all of us and we teeter between predator and prey, trying to find the balance of humanity between the two. I can't read the needle right now. The warmth of the room is clouding my judgment.'

Lucy, Fin and Max flee Sydney in the aftermath of a nuclear winter and find comfort and refuge with a small settlement in the southern bushlands. There's much relief in a warm bed and a full stomach, but soon Lucy begins to question the community's ideals. Maybe they're not as safe as they think?

‘I couldn't stop reading until I knew what would happen. If there is a sequel, bring it on.’

The Bird in the Herd Kathryn Apel & Renée Tremblay

A rollicking story for early childhood, perfect for reading aloud and laughing along.

Look! A herd of cows.

*Can you see...
the bird in the herd,
that stalks as it walks,
eating slugs, grubs and bugs,
that the herd stirred.*

From a beloved children's poet comes this bouncing picture book celebrating rhyme, rhythm and cows, of course!

‘Another stunning read. Kathryn Apel has mastered the art of word selection.’

Time for Adventure, Daddy

Dave Hackett

The hilarious new picture book in Dave Hackett's 'Time for...' series that's perfect for encouraging the whole family to go exploring.

*'Come on, Daddy, it's time for an adventure!'
'But I have more jobs to do,' says Daddy.'*

How can a little girl get her daddy ready to go on an adventure when he doesn't want to leave the house?

When the sun is shining, and there's the promise of a picnic, the best thing to do is to head out into the big yellow day. Time for Adventure, Daddy flips the fun on leaving work behind and adventuring into the world, celebrating the special relationship that fathers share with their children.

┌ Hackett's turnaround tale and brilliant cartoonesque illustrations are seriously kid friendly.
